"I wouldn't be in the position that I'm in now without an MBA—I wouldn't have had the courage and confidence to pursue something different. The full-time Fox MBA gave me the career awareness and the ability to contextualize my transferable skills, and I was able to figure out what I wanted to do in my life through all the networking in the program. Because of my Fox MBA, I was able to successfully make a career transition that set me up for success."
